

Determine if you should use 'you're' or 'your' in the following sentences.

Remember:

You're is an abbreviation meaning 'You are'.

You're going to be late.

• Your is used to show possession.

Don't forget your backpack.

Answers

- 1) Where did you get _____ new clothes?
- 2) What time does _____ party start?
- 3) When _____ eating hotdogs, make sure to bring napkins.
- 4) What is _____ favorite flavor?
- 5) What day is _____ birthday?
- 6) If _____ going to be late, make sure you call home.
- 7) How old is _____ sister?
- 8) _____ never going to make it home before it starts raining.
- 9) What is the quickest way to _____ house?
- 10) Before the movie starts, make sure _____ sitting down.
- 11) Be sure _____ washing the outside of the cups too.
- 12) Which superhero is _____ favorite?
- 13) _____ walking too fast!
- 14) Call me when _____ on the way.
- 15) I'm excited _____ staying the night!

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____
13. _____
14. _____
15. _____